ISSUE

Who is the proper party to sign a consent extending the statute of limitations for assessment for [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] for the tax year ended March 31, [REDACTED]?

FACTS

The taxpayer for whom the limitations period is to be extended is [REDACTED] for the tax period ended March 31, [REDACTED]. The statute of limitations will expire on [REDACTED].

The facts provided by Revenue Agent Evelyn Young by telephone and in the Proxy Statement dated [REDACTED] are as follows:

By Plan of Merger dated [REDACTED], [REDACTED] became a wholly owned subsidiary of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED], a wholly owned subsidiary of [REDACTED] formed for the purpose of the merger, was merged into [REDACTED].

Concurrently with the merger, [REDACTED] changed its name to [REDACTED], a name under which it had been doing business for some time prior to the merger. [REDACTED] continues to use the same EIN that was formerly used by [REDACTED].

Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-77T applies to statutory notices and waivers of the statute of limitations for taxable years for which the due date (without extension) of the consolidated return is after September 7, 1988. It provides for alternative agents if the corporation that is the common parent of the group ceases to be the common parent, whether or not the group remains in existence under § 1.1502-75(d).

Under the regulation, the common parent of the group for all or part of the year to which the waiver applies may give a waiver of the statute of limitations as the deemed agent of the group. Treas. Reg. § 1.1502-77T(a)(4)(i). Since [REDACTED] was the common parent for the tax year ended March 31, [REDACTED], and it is still in existence, it can act as an agent for the group for the tax year ended March 31, [REDACTED].

We recommend that you use the following language in the consent:

[REDACTED] (EIN [REDACTED]), formerly known as [REDACTED] *

*with regard to the consolidated tax liability of the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] (EIN [REDACTED]) consolidated group for fiscal tax year ended March 31, [REDACTED].

Another, more complicated alternative would be to have [REDACTED] sign the consent as agent for [REDACTED]. This would only be possible if the acquisition of [REDACTED] was a reverse acquisition. The facts provided thus far are not sufficient to make this determination with absolute certainty. We therefore recommend that you have [REDACTED] sign the consent, using the language set forth above.

The EIN which should be written in the upper right hand corner is that of [REDACTED] (and formerly that of [REDACTED]).

This advice has been discussed with and reviewed by our National Office. If you have further questions, please call me at (504) 558-3114.
